

VANCOUVER CHERRY BLOSSOM FESTIVAL – 2012

TOUCHING SPIRITS WITH THE FRAGILE BEAUTY OF THE CHERRY BLOSSOM

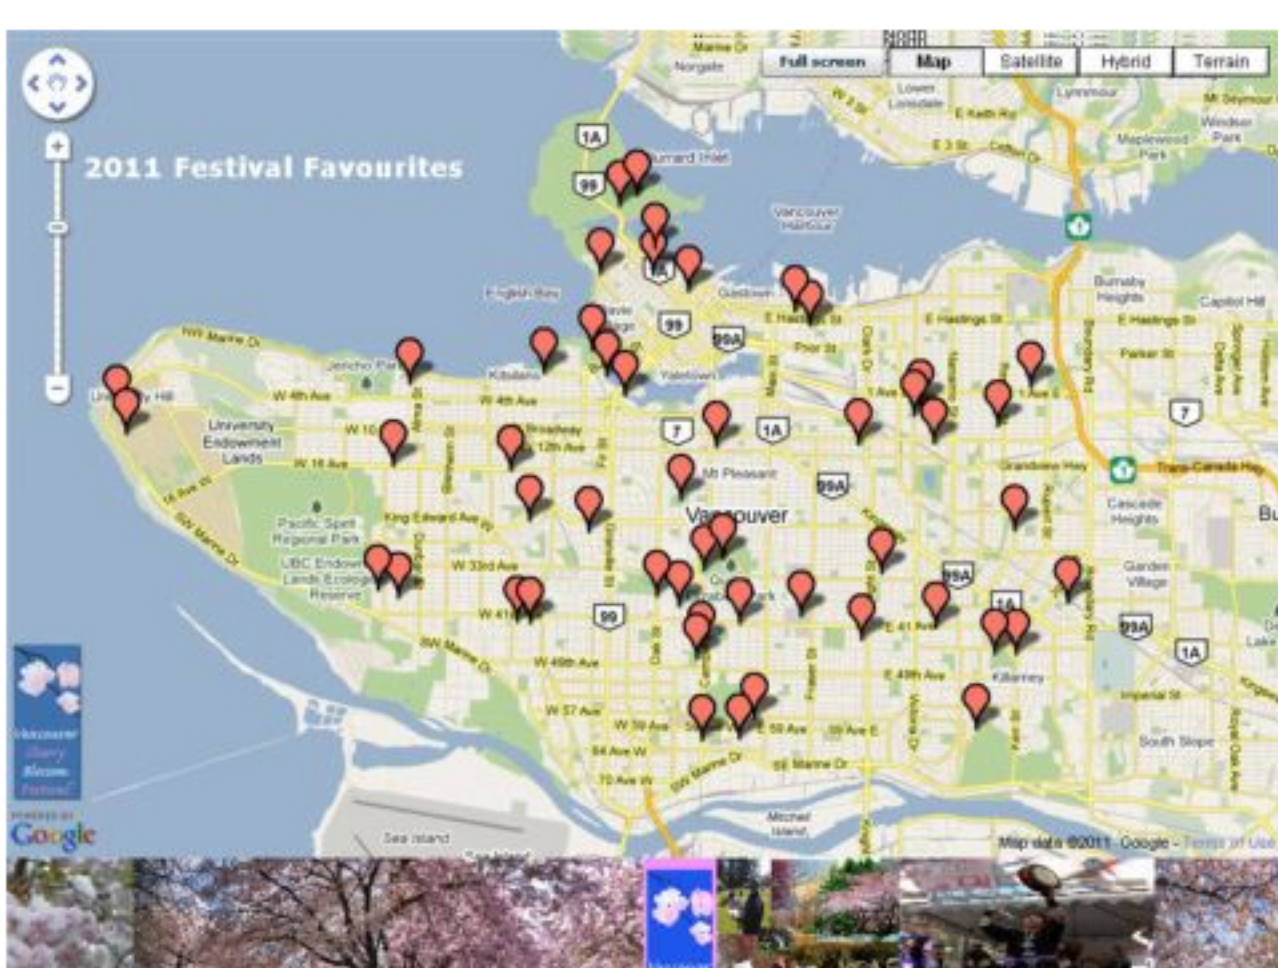

As the quintessential symbol of spring, the universal theme of the cherry tree inspires new poetry, art, music, film, design, crafts, photography, and cuisine while inspiring the artist in us all. Through a wide array of diverse programs from Cherry Jam Downtown, Haiku Invitational, Bike the Blossoms, Japan Fair, BC Blossom Watch Photo Contest, Cherry Scouts Program, Tree Talks and Walks and the Cherry Blossom Viewing Map the festival captures the exuberance of the blossoming with cultural programming for the whole community to enjoy. Inspired by the age old Sakura festivals of Japan, the Vancouver Cherry Blossom Festival uplifts spirits in the city, while the ephemeral nature of the blossoms remind us all to take time now to celebrate life.

Vancouver Cherry Blossom Festival invites you to join in the joyous city-wide celebration and choose a spot in one of the splendid parks on the special edition 2010 Cherry Blossom Viewing Map for your party and don't forget your tarp! This engaging festival provides a happy occasion to bring people together in Vancouver's beautiful natural park settings to experience this miracle of nature.

Canada's cherry blossom festival the Vancouver Cherry Blossom Festival Society is a non-profit charitable society established in 2005 in the province of British Columbia. The City of Vancouver declared March and April the months to honor the more than 37,000 ornamental cherry trees generously gifted from Japan in the 1930's.
