

THE BEAUTY OF SPRING TIME CHERRY BLOSSOMS

December 28, 2016 by Saschie MacLean | Communications Specialist, North America

One of the most beautiful times of the year in Vancouver is when the cherry blossom trees are blooming. The streets are dusted with shades of pink from east to west. This year the annual Cherry Blossom Festival will kick off on March 30 and run until April 23.

In addition to the blooming trees, take advantage of the spring time season with more hotel accommodation options, less crowds, and the best of both worlds with snow available at near by mountains while the city is vibrant with spring freshness.
